HOUSE APPOINTMENT
Chairman Thaddeus Dulski, D.N.Y. of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee has announced the appointment of John Martiny as the committee's chief counsel. Martiny has served on the committee the last 10 years and has been its counsel the past few years. Martiny has done an excellent job and is highly regarded by the committee members and the federal and postal employee leaders who deal with him. Prior to joining the committee, Martiny worked a number of years at the General Accounting Office.
